

*The Children's Library
Summer Reading Challenge
2020!*

We look forward to welcoming you all back to the library when we re-open but in the meantime take on our summer reading challenge.

My Book List

Fill in the titles and author's names, and bring your completed form to the library when we re-open to collect your reward.

- A favourite book re-read

- A book borrowed from a friend

- A fairytale

- A book about another country

- A book that has been made into a film

- A non-fiction book

- A book of short stories

- A book told in diary or letter form

- An old book (How old?)

- A mystery or detective story

- A fantasy or sci-fi book

- Don't forget to wash your hands. Ask an adult to help with hot trays.
- Put baking paper on your oven tray and heat the oven to 180C.
- Put the flour, sugar and baking powder in a bowl and rub in the cubed butter, then mix in the dried fruit.
- In another bowl mix the egg and milk together.
- Pour it into the dry ingredients to make a thick lump dough. Add more milk if really needed.
- Put spoonfuls of the mixture on the baking tray – leave space between.
- Bake for 15-20 minutes, let them cool, then gobble them up.

Delicious Books

Some books can make us feel hungry: Turkish Delight in The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe by C.S. Lewis. In Harry Potter Hagrid makes Rock Cakes which are hard enough to break your teeth. Try our recipe, which is hopefully a bit softer:

You will need:

200g flour	75g sugar
1 pkt vanilla sugar	1 tsp baking powder
125g butter (unsalted)	150g raisins and / or sultanas
1 large egg	1 tbsp milk
